MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence

FROM : Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

Confirming oral arrangements made yesterday, I have directed DD/I to arrange for daily transmission through Agency channels of our "President's Checklist" to the Secretary of Defense during his current trip abroad. I have already explained to General Brown (Secretary McNamara's assistant) that what he received from our Station Chief would be identical with the "President's Checklist" but would not, repeat not, in any way be identified as such. I have also authorized the use of any station facilities that Secretary McNamara and his party might need. Further, in the event the Department of Defense communications are not adequate to service the Secretary, I have authorized him to use Agency communications. Similarly, in the event Agency communications are not in a position to service the Secretary, please utilize Department of Defense facilities through direct contact with Lt. General Joe Carroll.
